

Metropolitan Home

GLAMOUR

MAKING IT MODERN

BY MICHAEL LASSELL

FOREWORD BY DONNA WARNER

■ To flood the kitchen of his 1883 Chicago Victorian, Rome-born designer Patrizio Fradiani replaced the back wall of the house up to the gable with a commercial window system. All the usual components, including the kitchen sink, are set into a stainless steel island or concealed behind lacquered panels along a nearby wall.

